AMERICAN IDOL FAVORITE REEMERGES WITH A NEW NAME AND EP

July Cruise releases 10 new tracks

Los Angeles, CA – Just in time for summer, Season Six American Idol darling Tatiana McConnico released a self-titled EP this month under the seasonally-appropriate name “July Cruise.”

Ms. Cruise describes her EP as, “An inside look into the life of a 20-something party girl in Hollywood.” With hot dance beats and lyrics like, “I’ll do what I like cause it makes me feel good” and “...there’s a party on Sunset,” there is no denying the influence of Los Angeles’ nightlife with images of young rebellion and debauchery.

The 10-track EP not only gets listeners dancing with catchy pop tracks about fashion and bottle service, but it also hits on darker subjects like addiction and heartbreak demonstrating versatility and making this album perfect for pre-gaming and the morning after.

Three years in the making, “July Cruise EP” is a fusion of the artist’s life experiences and passion for music. Self-proclaimed “seasoned-newcomer,” July Cruise has graced the stages of Showtime at The Apollo, Star Search, The Jenny Jones Show, and Madison Square Garden as well as performed alongside Alicia Keys and Angie Stone before 16-years-old.

Recently, July Cruise has been making her rounds on the west coast performing live at various venues in Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco and Las Vegas.

The album is available for download on www.soundcloud.com/julycruise.
